Messrs. Rowe & Walsh,
Saratoga Springs,
New York.

Gentlemen:

I have your letter of the 14th instant, in response to my letter addressed to your client, Mr. Calude Salisbury. I have been engaged in the Hall-Mills case and was unable to reply sooner. Might I ask if it would be possible to see your client in New York City at some future date? I should very much appreciate your letting me know if this is practicable.

Yours very truly,
